

Museum-University Partnerships

Conversation starters

PDF FOR PRINT OUT

- This document has been designed for single-sided printing on A4.
- Once printed the A4 sheets should be cut down the middle, resulting in 12 single-sided A5 sheets.

National
Co-ordinating Centre for Public Engagement

What type of partnership would you like?

One off

Long term

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

Who would you like to lead the partnership?

Museum

University

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

What type of structure do you want?

Informal relationship

MOU

Partnership
contract

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

What matters most to you?

The project has effective outcomes

The project is run well,
with effective processes

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

Which matters most in terms of legacy?

Creating outputs and outcomes that are useful and valuable to the people in the project

Creating outputs and outcomes that are useful and valuable to the wider sector

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

Which is more important?

Having a tangible output

Having a tangible outcome

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

Where do new ideas come from?

New ideas originate in practice, academics evaluate and validate them

New ideas originate in research, practitioners test out and validate them

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

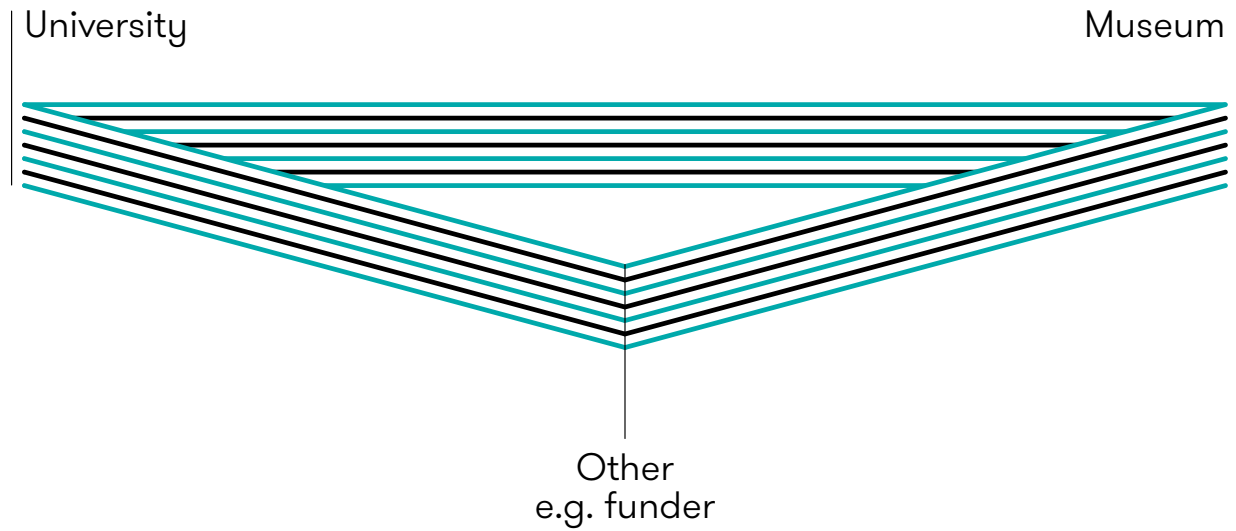

When will our work take place?

During usual working hours
e.g. 9am-5pm

Outside usual working hours
e.g. evenings and weekends

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

Who sets the success criteria?

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

Who will decide if the project is successful?

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

What do we hope to achieve for the partners involved?

New knowledge

New skills

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters

CUT

What do we hope to achieve for our audiences?

Broaden our audiences

Deepen our engagement

Museum-University Partnerships
Conversation starters